Easter 7

- Today is the 7th Sunday in Easter.
- During Easter, we learn about the members of the first churches.
- Easter calls us to share the good news!

Long Road Ahead

During the days of the early Christian church, people walked long distances to share the good news of Jesus. As a new disciple, Matthias made many journeys with Jesus' other followers. Help Matthias find his way to the next city.

In the World as One

Jesus wanted his family to work together as one family of God.

Find the number 1 seven times in this picture, one for each week of the Easter season.

The Book of Acts continues the action from the Gospel of Luke. Acts begins with a brief summary of Luke's Gospel and then introduces the second part of the story. For the writer of Luke, the story doesn't stop with Jesus. He wants to tell everyone about the earliest churches and spread the good news to all.

Did You Know?

Look it Up!
